Terms and Conditions

The Scholarship:

The Trunk Scholarship is supplied by the generosity of The Shepherd's House International Christian Church (TSHICC) leadership and members, C.A.P Solutions, LLC, community members and business sponsors. It is a gift given to recipients without any financial or GPA requirements. We reserved the right to select qualified recipients in any reasonable order or process.

Basic Requirements:

- ☐ Must be a first-time college student (e.g. Freshmen); a high school student or adult officially enrolled a university/college for the Fall 2023; AND
- ☐ Must have a confirmed assignment of campus housing (e.g. dormitory or college apt through the housing office); AND
- ☐ Must be officially enrolled as a full-time (e.g. 12 plus credits) undergraduate student.

Applicants:

We expect every applicant to be respectful of the process and to adhere to instruction and requirements. Failure to follow all request will void all consideration from the program.

- The above application must be completed in its entirety with current address, emails and phone contact. We mail, email and phone selected recipients.
- Applicants must submit a Letter of Acceptance from your select university/college
- Applicant must also submit proof of on-campus housing (a dormitory confirmation or assignment letter)
- Applications are received in order by date and time. Preference is given first to The Shepherd's House International Christian Church members and family.
- Scholarships are limited. Submitting an application and supporting documents does not guarantee a scholarship will be awarded.
- The team has a right to verify all information submitted by the applicant.

Trunk/Items:

- Items contained within the trunk may change from year to year based on market availability and pricing.
- Items are preselected by the team and will not be substituted.
- Items are generally shipped from foreign market and take months to arrive. If items are not available before the Send Off event. Sponsors will ship any outstanding items to the recipient's address on file.
- We make every effort to select quality products. Breakage or damage of product after receipt of scholarship are the responsibility of the recipient. The team and sponsors are not responsible for items after they have been issued.

Recipients:

- Recipients must be present at the Send Off event Sunday, July 9, 2023 @ 9am at The Shepherd's House International Christian Church.
- All recipients will receive written notice of their acceptance.
- No trunks will be shipped nor will any be held for pickup. Failure to be present will forfeit your scholarship to the next qualified Candidate. We may extend grace to recipients having extreme special circumstance.
